INTEGRATED SCHEME FOR PERSONS WITH DISABILITIES

Introduction

The constitution of India ensures equality, freedom, justice and dignity to all its citizens with a mandate of setting up inclusive society including respectable life for Persons with disabilities (PWDs). The changing positive attitude of the society towards the PWDs facilitates in building enabling environment for their easy socialization. Equal opportunities and increased effective access to rehabilitation measures are the two main factors, which facilitate the PWDs to lead a better and dignified life.

Due to the change in the society's attitude towards the PWDs and technological advancement in disability sector, the earlier emphasis of medical rehabilitation of PWDs has been replaced by the emphasis on social rehabilitation. The concept of recognizing the potentials/ abilities of PWDs and increasing acceptability of PWDs has laid thrust on mainstreaming them in inclusive society. For the protection of rights of PWDs and for their equal participation in the development process of state, the Government of H.P. has introduced various schemes for extending benefits to PWDs which are revised from time to time. However, the need of formulating a comprehensive scheme for PWDs was being felt for quite some time. Under the scheme, all categories of disabled under Persons with Disabilities (Equal Opportunities, Protection of Rights and Full Participation) Act, 1995 and National Trust Act, 1999 will be covered. "Integrated scheme for PWDs" is framed basically with the objective to consider PWDs as part and parcel of society and making opportunities available to them so that they can participate in all spheres and activities of life as a normal person does. Another important objective of the scheme is to implement provisions of the PWD, Act relevant to the state government.

CHAPTER-1
